

September 20, 2010

For Immediate Release

American Baptist Men of Nebraska recognize Susan E. Gillies

The American Baptist Men of Nebraska recognized Susan E. Gillies, Executive Minister of the American Baptist Churches of Nebraska during their annual luncheon held Saturday September 18, 2010 at the Holiday Inn Midtown, Grand Island, NE.

Gillies, was the guest speaker to the men during her final year as Executive Minister for the region and was presented with a plaque following her presentation thanking her for her years of ministry support. The plaque was inscribed as follows;

To: Susan Gillies, Executive Minister of the American Baptist Churches of Nebraska,

Thank you for your leadership, support and prayers over the past ten years as we have worked together to serve men and women across our state in their time of need.”

American Baptist Men of Nebraska

September 18, 2010

1 Timothy 3:13

Those who have served well gain an excellent standing and great assurance in their faith in Christ Jesus.

For further information please contact Bob Slechta, President, American Baptist Men of Nebraska. 402-334-2047 / rbslechta@cox.net .

